Outline

Name: ________Jad Chreideh ___________________________________ Group 01 604-101-MQ___

- Title: (the title must include at least three words; use proper capitals)
  _Culture: The Heartbeat of Society
  ____

Introduction: (no sentences, except for the thesis statement)

Opening statement (attention-getter)

Culture isn't just about the clothes we wear or the food we eat. It's the invisible hand guiding our behaviours, shaping our perceptions of the world, and influencing how we interact with each other. ____

Background information (enough information for one or two sentences)

_The definition of culture is based on traditions, beliefs, language, and customs that define a group of people. It influences social norms, values and behaviours. ____

Thesis statement: (the main idea)

Transition word: ____________________________ (if required)

_ Culture plays a crucial role in shaping society by showing how people think, behave, and interact, making it a powerful societal force.

____

____

Paragraph 1: Transition word_____Firstly, __________________________

Topic sentence in point form only

Traditional cultures are a form of cultural practice that has been passed down through generations.

____

Supports

- _People have norms and customs in social behaviours, such as not wearing shoes inside the home. In addition, languages and cultures are slow to change, and people learn them from their parents or elders.

____

- ___the popular culture includes entertainment such as pop music and popular culture. _Celebrations and festivals are often held to celebrate the culture of a community.

  ____

Concluding sentence in point form only
_Culture has a big impact on society, influencing how people live and interact. ____

Sources: (In English only and at least two different and reliable sources)

- An Overview of Culture and Its Impact on Society - New Cultural Frontiers____
  _
- __How Does Culture Influence Society? - Society For Peace____
- ____
- ____
- ______________
-
- The outline must be handed in before the beginning of class. ____.